Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, 5, 7-32, drawn to a product and a method of making it, classified in class 435, subclass 184.
- II. Claim 6, drawn to a method of using the product, classified in class 435, subclass various.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially distinct process such as treating a wound.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Peter Malen on 2/5/2003 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-3, 5, 7-32. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claim 6 is withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 7-9, 16-27, 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 4282398 or JP 04282400.

The references teach the claimed process.

Claims 5 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 04082898.

The product is anticipated by the reference since the reference teaches a whey protein hydrolysate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, 5, 7-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 4282398 or JP 04282400 taken with JP 04082898 and further taken with JU et al.

The teachings of JP '398 and JP '400 are above.

They do not teach to specifically use inactivation by heat but they do use acid and heating is well known to be used to in activate such proteins during the claimed process as is evidenced by JP '898.

Thus it would have been obvious to inactivate by using heat since it is so well known to use heat in such a reaction as is evidenced by JP'898.

Ju teaches that it is well known to use porcine trypsin in such a process as claimed.

Claims 1-3, 5, 7-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 04082898 taken with JP 4282398 or JP 04282400 and further taken with Ju et al.

The teachings of JP '898 are above.

The teachings of JP '398 and JP '400 are above.

JP '898 does not teach to use trypsin in the reaction.

JP '398 and JP '400 teach to specifically use trypsin in the claimed reaction.

Thus, it would have been obvious to use trypsin instead of pepsin since JP '398 and '400 teach that it is well known to use trypsin in such a well known process and achieve desirable results.

Ju teaches that it is well known to use porcine trypsin in such a process as claimed.
